Cultural Values about Gender and Violence in the Trans Community Workshop

9:00 - 11:00 a.m. // Talley 4280

While there has been increasing attention in the mainstream media about GLBT issues, the issues faced by members of the transgender community have been noticeably absent from the national conversation. This two-hour workshop explores the cultural values that contribute to a climate of interpersonal, social and institutional discrimination, oppression, and violence in the trans community.

Cruel and Unusual (2006) Film Screening and Discussion

7:00 - 9:00 p.m. // Talley 4280

Join the GLBT Center for the screening of the film Cruel and Unusual, which depicts the experiences of transgender women forced to serve their sentence in men's prisons. This film contains graphic descriptions of sexual violence and self-harm and brief nudity. A discussion of the film will follow.

WEDNESDAY // NOV. 16, 2016

The Spectrum of Sex: Exploring Intersex Identities and the Relationship to Gender Workshop

1:00 - 3:00 p.m. // Talley 4280

The GLBT community often discusses the spectra of gender and sexual orientation, but fewer GLBT individuals and their allies have thought about the spectrum of sex. Intersex identities are influenced by chromosomal, hormonal and structural differences that are part of the human experience of "sex." Join the GLBT Center in a two-hour exploration of the definition of intersex, its relationship to gender identity and expression and ways to affirm intersex identities.

Making Space Series: GitHub's February Keeney

4:00 - 5:00 p.m. // D.H. Hill Auditorium

February Keeney is passionate about building inclusive workplaces and online communities. She will discuss how she leverages her experiences and perspective to foster greater understanding of privilege and intersectionality. Currently, Keeney is the engineering manager for the Community & Safety team at GitHub and lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Transgender Day of Remembrance Vigil

6:00 - 6:30 p.m. // Free Expression Tunnel

Every year the lives lost due to anti-transgender violence are remembered and memorialized during vigils across the globe. Join the GLBT Center and T-Files, NC State's transgender peer support group, as we observe Transgender Day of Remembrance.

Painting the Free Expression Tunnel for Transgender Day of Remembrance

6:30 p.m. // Free Expression Tunnel

Get your paint on! The GLBT Center will be painting the Free Expression Tunnel in order to share Transgender Awareness Week with the larger campus community.

FRIDAY // NOV. 18, 2016

Lecture by Martine Rothblatt

5:30 - 6:30 p.m. // Hunt Library Auditorium

Martine Rothblatt has had quite a hand in making the world what it is today. She is a telecommunications lawyer, founder and CEO of United Therapeutics and co-founder of Sirius Radio. Come hear about her experiences and perspectives at Hunt Library.

TUE-FRI // NOV. 15-18

Letter Writing Campaign

8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. // GLBT Center Lounge, Talley 5230

Did Monday's film screening fire you up to dismantle the systemic oppression upheld in the prison industrial complex? Channel your energy into writing a letter to someone inside prison. Supplies and writing prompts will be available at the GLBT Center Tuesday through Friday.
