With within our great Wolfpack city, many small, intimate villages exist...

The African American Cultural Center invites you to participate in our annual Harambee program on Monday, September 9, 2013, 6:00 – 7:30. Harambee is the Swahili word meaning “let us come together.”

At Harambee, we gather together to welcome new members into our village and to celebrate all of the members of our community. Harambee allows us to introduce student leaders, faculty, administrators and staff.

This year Harambee showcases a sneak preview of “A Day Underneath the Angel Tree” choreographed by John Miller IV, a junior majoring in psychology. This Afro-modern work in progress celebrates the Gullah Geechie culture through dance and song and includes a performance by our own NCSU Uninhibited Praise Team. “A Day Underneath the Angel Tree” will be presented in full during the Fall Dance Program Concert November 14-15 at Titmus Theatre at Thompson Hall.

This work is part of an independent study with NCSU Dance Program.

Harambee 2013
Welcome

Within our great Wolfpack city, many small, intimate villages exist...

The African American Cultural Center invites you to participate in our annual Harambee program on Monday, September 9, 2013, 6:00 – 7:30. Harambee is the Swahili word meaning “let us come together.”

At Harambee, we gather together to welcome new members into our village and to celebrate all of the members of our community. Harambee allows us to introduce student leaders, faculty, administrators and staff.

This year Harambee showcases a sneak preview of “A Day Underneath the Angel Tree” choreographed by John Miller IV, a junior majoring in psychology. This Afro-modern work in progress celebrates the Gullah Geechie culture through dance and song and includes a performance by our own NCSU Uninhibited Praise Team. “A Day Underneath the Angel Tree” will be presented in full during the Fall Dance Program Concert November 14-15 at Titmus Theatre at Thompson Hall.

This work is part of an independent study with NCSU Dance Program.

The Details

- Welcome
- Meet and Greet Activity
- “A Day Underneath the Angel Tree”
- Introduction of African American Student Advisory Council
- Introduction of new members of the Community
- Reception and socializing (really good food)
- Harambee!!

If you are a person with a disability and require any assistive devices, services, or other accommodations to participate in this activity, please contact Toni Thorpe at 919.515.1451 during the business hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to discuss accommodations.