Lee Mun Wah is a renowned documentary filmmaker, author, poet, Asian folkteller, educator, community therapist and master diversity trainer. He currently serves as the Executive Director of Stirfry Seminars & Consulting, a diversity training company that provides workshops on issues pertaining to cross-cultural communication and awareness, mindful facilitation, and conflict mediation techniques.

His film, The Color of Fear, won the Gold Medal for Best Social Studies Documentary. Part Two of this film, Walking Each Other Home, won the Cindy Competition Silver Medal for Social Science. In 1995, Oprah Winfrey did a one-hour special on Lee Mun Wah’s life and work that was seen by over 15 million viewers internationally.

It is Lee Mun Wah’s belief that we cannot wait until tomorrow for some charismatic leader to appear who will bring us all together. We each must take a stand and personally participate in this important journey of confronting our fears and beginning a conversation not only with those we love but also with those we have been taught to fear.
