From Selma to Montgomery: A March for the Right to Vote

Featuring 46 black and white photos documenting the pain, agony, pride and joy experienced by a cross section of Americans marching for equality and justice.

The incredible black and white photo exhibit "Selma to Montgomery: A March for the Right to Vote" will be featured at the North Carolina State University African American Cultural Center Gallery from Wednesday September 12, 2012 to November 7, 2012.

The opening will take place in conjunction with Living Legends on September 12 at 6:00 p.m in the Washington-Sankofa room of the Witherspoon Student Center.

For more information on the program, or gallery hours please call the African American Cultural Center at (919) 515-5210.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, NC State will honor requests for reasonable accommodations made by individuals with disabilities. Requests can be served more effectively if notice is provided at least 10 days before the event. Direct accommodation requests to Dante James at (919) 513-0960.